Election Defense Alliance (www.electiondefensealliance.org) is a coordinating body for more than 150 grassroots groups working at the local and state levels to restore integrity and public control of the voting process in the U.S., and to ensure that our elections are honest, secure, transparent, and worthy of the public trust. The Alliance for Democracy is a non-partisan organization working nationally and locally to limit the power of large corporations over government, elections, and public policy development.
